Uniforms

Do you like uniforms? Uniform is now forced to wear because they want you to look professional. Many people do not like uniform because they cannot express themselves. Showing bare midriffs, tank tops and sport teams are not allowed because they may cause problems. Pictures and graphics are not allowed too because they can have inappropriate pictures and language. You cannot wear your P.E. clothes because then you are not looking professional.

You may think that uniform sucks but it will help you out in your academic grade. It will prevent most school fights and inappropriate language. The uniform might help get more grades up. Uniform can help people do better on the state tests.

Many people do not wear uniform because they think it is gay. It has more chances of you getting into the University. Uniform prevents many things but causes many things. Uniforms may not be that great but it could help a lot in life. Uniform could look great on you.

Having uniform looks a lot professional and the school would look good if everyone wore it. People should wear it because it is not fair for those who wear it than those who do not wear it. There will be consequences for those who wear and if it is mandatory to wear it. If it is mandatory, you have to but if it is not then you do not.

Uniform is so that the school looks professional. Just wearing uniform could probably help you academic grade. Just because you want to look cool and all, coolness cannot probably help you through life and if uniform is not cool then you just not might be professional. Uniform could be optional but its better if you choose to wear it. Uniform can have many advantages in your later life.
